EQUAL ACCESS AND OPPORTUNITY

Rochester College is committed to equal opportunity for all persons and does not discriminate in admissions, programs, or any other educational functions and services on the basis of race, color, creed, national origin, gender, age, veteran status, religion, or disability to those who meet admission criteria and are willing to uphold its values as stated in the Student Handbook. Rochester College is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, national origin, gender, age, veteran status, or disability.

Based upon this commitment, Rochester College follows the principle of nondiscrimination and operates within applicable federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination. As a recipient of federal financial assistance, Rochester College is required by Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, as amended, not to discriminate on the basis of gender in its admissions policies, treatment of students, employment practices, or educational programs. Inquiries regarding compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments or any other equal access/equal opportunity law or regulation should be directed to the Compliance Coordinator at Rochester College.

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATION POLICY

It is the policy of Rochester College to comply with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 in providing reasonable accommodations to qualified students with disabilities. A qualified student with a disability is one who meets the academic and nonacademic admission criteria essential to participate in the program in question and who, with or without reasonable accommodation, can perform the essential functions of the program or course requirements.

Human Resources facilitates reasonable accommodations and support services for any qualified student with a properly documented disability. A disability is a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities. Written documentation from an appropriate professional is required. Refer to www.rc.edu/academics/accommodations for a complete description of policies and procedures associated with disability accommodations at Rochester College.

CATALOG INFORMATION

Rochester College attempts to maintain the highest standards of accuracy with regard to the policies and degree programs outlined in this catalog. The College makes every reasonable effort to ensure that catalog changes are made known to students whose educational careers may be affected by such changes. Final responsibility for awareness of and compliance with codes of academic, social, spiritual, and moral conduct is the responsibility of the student. This document does not constitute a legal contract between potential employees, prospective students, or degree candidates. All persons who become members of the College community, either by enrollment or employment, should familiarize themselves with institutional regulations and abide by those regulations at all times.
