Kevin Patrick Kowalski (March 17, 1959 - June 28, 2014), 55-years old, went to heaven peacefully during his sleep at home in Los Angeles, California, due to congestive heart failure following a prolonged illness. Kevin earned a bachelors degree in business from Harding University in Searcy, Arkansas and completed graduate work in biblical studies at Abilene Christian University in Abilene, Texas. He read Greek, Latin and Hebrew and held an extensive book collection on the Bible. He was a member of several Church of Christ organizations in Oakland County. He held licenses in stock and financial sales but his passion was sports and religion. Kevin was an accomplished athlete, coach, referee and substitute teacher in Detroit. He was Bloomfield Hills' Forest Lake Country Club's (FLCC) 1982 Men's Golf Champion. He was an amateur photographer and thespian starring and performing in plays and musicals in the West Bloomfield and Bloomfield Hills area. He had a big personality, a big heart, a sharp mind and a keen wit bringing joy and chuckles to his family and friends. Loving son of Arthur and Theresa Kowalski of West Bloomfield, Michigan and Sarasota (Siesta Key), Florida. Loving twin brother and dear friend to Kathleen (Kowalski) McDonald (Chad) of Imlay City, Michigan. Loving brother to Diana (Kowalski) Holker (Bryan) of Del Mar, California; Susan Kowalski of Redondo Beach, California; Michael Kowalski (Belinda) of Sarasota, Florida; and Jennifer (Kowalski) Rajala (Nathan) of Grand Rapids, Minnesota. Beloved Uncle to Jake and Peter Holker; Patrick, Alexander and Molly Rajala; Nicole, Matthew, Eric and Daniel (Ashly) Huckle and Anastasia McDonald. Beloved nephew and cousin. Loyal friend to many. God saw you getting tired And a cure was not to be So he put his arms around You and whispered, "Come With Me". Kevin will be deeply missed.

A Memorial celebrating Kevin's Life will be held Sunday, September 28th, at Santia Banquet Center in Keego Harbor, Michigan. Donations in Kevin's name may be sent to Step Up on Second, 1328 2nd St., Santa Monica, California 90401.
